23.	Sh.Uttam Chand Mittal	IGMHY/R/T/21/00003	24.02.2021	Transferred U/s 6(3) by SPMCIL CHO	The following Information may be provided: 1.Govt.of India, Ministry of Finance is issuing Commemorative coins on various themes in celebrating birth anniversary of prominent personalities of country. Govt. is not following the Coinage Act, 2011. Officials of Ministry of Finance are selling commemorative coins at Exorbitant prices. Few people can purchase but most of the citizen of country donot purchase these coins due to very very dearer in comparision to its face value. Please inform such matter is in your knowledge or not.	Under the provisions of the RTI Act, 2005, only such information as is available and existing and held by the public authority or is under control of the public authority can be provided. The PIO is not supposed to create information that is not a part of the record. He is also not required to interpret information or furnish replies to hypothetical questions. Similarly, redressal of grievance, reasons for non-compliance of rules/contesting the actions of the respondent public authority are outside the purview of the Act. The information sought does not fall under the definition of information as contained in Section 2(f) of the RTI Act,2005. However, in the interest of justice and fairness it is to inform that Commemorative coins are uncirculated coins which are not for public circulation unlike other coins. These are specially manufactured on various themes notified through official Gazette by Government of India. These	03.03.2021	Mahesh Kumar
