

SECURITY PRINTING PRESS : HYDERABAD

Workshop on “SCIENCE & TECHNOLOGY”

- A workshop on “Science & Technology” was recently conducted for the employees, including Executives and Supervisors on 11-12-2014 in the mini-conference hall of Security Printing Press, Hyderabad. The workshop was inaugurated by Shri V.P. Kamalaskar, Chief Manager. Dr.Raghunandan silaboyina, DM(R&D), BHEL, Hyderabad has participated as Guest Faculty.
- This workshop is a part of HR Benchmarking Project titled as “PRAGYAN” introduced by the Corporate office, SPMCIL, which is a combination of Prathiba + Gyan where the employees will get an opportunity to share and exchange their thoughts and ideas.
- This workshop was attended by 29 members.
- Objectives of the workshop:
 - Information sharing and knowledge update.
 - Cross functional areas networking.
 - Know the developments taking place world-wide.
 - Yield an insight for future good of the Organisation.
 - Increasing employee satisfaction by enabling conversations and information sharing.
 - Contributing towards Employer Branding of the Company.
- Discussions/Debates were held on the following:-
 - What is Science & Technology
 - Resources for Science & Technology
 - Security Inks
 - Fluorescence
 - UV/Invisible Inks, Optically Variable Inks
 - Magnetic Inks
 - Chemical Reactive Inks

The participants requested to the organization to carry forward conducting this type of Workshop in future for the benefit of individual career progression and also the furtherance of SPP.

- Valedictory session was addressed by Shri N.Sidhan, DM(HR) and expressed his sincere thanks to all participants for their participation, contribution and making the event a grand success. Certificates were awarded to all the participants.

(VIEW PHOTOGRAPHS in Gallery Area)